All of the signatures on page 8 of the WOMENS petition, 16 in number, are also in this man's handwriting.

On page 78 of the WOMENS PETITION, 16 signatures, #34 to 49, are in the same handwriting (not Lilikalani's; but a number of the names signed by Lilikalani on page 8 are written again by some one else, on page 78).

A strong side light is thrown upon the petition as a whole by the fact that Lilikalani is a personal adherent of the late reigning family, a prominent office holder and member of the Legislature under the Monarchy, and is now an implacable Royalist and advocate of restoration of the Monarchy.

In addition to signing his own and all the other names on the two pages above indicated, he attests his enthusiasm by again signing his own name on pages 55 and 255 of the male petition. I am personally and intimately acquainted with Lilikalani's handwriting. Mr. John Ross also signs his name on page 307, and again on page 309.

On page 260 of the Male petition, 25 signatures, #3 to 27 are in the same handwriting.

On page 294 of the Male petition, 23 signatures, #2 to 24(3) are in the same handwriting.

On page 5 of the FEMALE petition, all the 48 signatures and the ages, are in the same handwriting.
